And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

Four Important Things for a Congregation to Grow

(Ernest S. Underwood)

1. Put the kingdom first in your lives (Mt. 6:33)
 - a. The mother of James and John had the wrong idea
 1. she thought position was more important than service
 2. Jesus showed them that this was not the case.
2. Present bodies as living sacrifices (Roman 12:1-2)
 - a. This means attending services
 - b. It means working in the kingdom
 - c. It means keeping one's self unspotted from the world
 - d. It means denying self, Lk. 9:23.
3. Each one must truly love the other, Jn. 13:35.
 - a. This involves putting their interests above your own
 - b. It may involve a refusal to extend fellowship unless they repent
 - c. It certainly means more than an outward show of affection.
4. Each one must have a deep and abiding respect for the authority of the Scriptures.

Did you know that George de Mestral invented Velcro after closely examining the tiny hooks of the cocklebur? Isn't God's creation amazing?
