And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

Scripture Reading:
Worship* A.M: James 1:21-25
Sermon Topics:
Morning: With All Your Soul
Evening: Rev. 11:3-13

James 1:21-25 - Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing.

The Guerra family has arrived safely in Knoxville, TN. Please keep them in your prayers.

Romans 13:1 gives a command to God-fearing people and teaches a great truth. The apostle Paul said, "Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God." Christians would do well to remember that obedience to the law of the land is required of us! The only exception to this would be if the government ever demanded that we disobey God's revealed will for our lives. In that case, the words of the apostles in Acts 5:29 should be our guide, "…we ought to obey God rather than men." By and large, though, Christians ought to be the best citizens and the most law-abiding people in the nation!

Someone has observed that if you treat a dog with kindness, pet him often and feed him regularly, he'll never leave you. Just Think – this might even work with husbands and wives!

Thank you for being prayer warriors – our prayer list is long, and each has asked for your prayers! Sometimes prayer is all we can do – but please note prayer is doing a lot more than you might think. Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. James 5:16
