Communion Meditation

“Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.” – Ephesians 4:32

I have known a Christian man, a deacon in the church, who could not forgive one of the elders in that church. He resigned as a deacon, but continues as a member. One time when the elder tried to speak to him, he created a scene. Yet, he would partake of the Lord’s Supper every Sunday with the elder there. Now, I believe the elder had treated him badly, but he has expressed regrets to the man involved, but this man could not turn it loose.

In the Lord’s Supper, as we remember the Lord’s gift and sacrifice for us, we need to remind ourselves that we need to turn loose some things too. We are not just to be kind and compassionate to one another; we are also to forgive each other in the same way God has forgiven us in Christ.

Lord, help me to see whom I need to forgive. Help me to forgive this person and turn loose of the offence against me. You have forgiven me of so much. Help me to forgive my fellow Christian. Amen.

Cletus' Call

THE ETERNAL SOUL OF MAN

The language of immortality in the scriptures is clear and distinct. The creative hand of God did not hesitate when it blessed mankind with the nature of immortality. I Cor. 15:51-55 Within this context of immortality, we may choose to accept God's gift of eternal life or refuse and spurn it. On one occasion, Jesus said to religious leaders, "... you are not willing to come to me that you may have life." John 5:40

Eternal life is pleasurable and sweet to those who prepare for it. The beloved John wrote: "And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever." "And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life." I John 2:17,25 "There shall be no night there: they need no lamp nor light of the sun, for the Lord God gives them light and they shall reign forever and ever." Rev. 22:5

Let us so live that when our summons comes, we will hear those words of welcome, "Well done, good and faithful servant... enter into the joy of your Lord." Matt. 25:23
